Food Court Open
- 11:00am-12:00pm Troy Historic Village program (Children's Tent)
Troy Pioneers at Work and Play
Recommended ages 5 and up
History Interpreters from Troy Historic Village will give a short talk about the daily life of pioneer families in mid-1800s Troy. We'll show artifacts/reproductions of tools used in cleaning, cooking, farming, etc. We'll also give a brief description of one-room schools and show a few McGuffey Readers, chalk slates, dunce cap, and wooden recess toys (hoops and graces, stilts, etc.). Guests (especially kids) will be invited to try out the chores, school supplies, and toys.
- 12:00pm-1:00pm Troy Public Library Book Walk (Children's Tent)
(all youth ages welcome)
Skip, dance, and sing your way to a free book at our Book Walk! Children will walk around our circle, moving to the music. If they are standing on the number we call when the music stops, they get to choose a free book provided by the Friends of the Troy Public Library. All ages are welcome, but younger children will need their parents for assistance.
- 1:00pm-2:00pm Troy Nature Society program (Children's Tent)-LIMITED SPACE
Recommended ages 5 and up
Explore the world of Michigan's reptiles and amphibians. We will discover their special adaptations as you meet some of the nature center's live resident reptiles & amphibians.
